RUG DEALER AWAITS TIDINGS OF MASSACRE

Gruesome Crimes of Moslems at Adana
May Include Murder of Family of Eight.

D. H. Meymarian Received a Letter a Few Weeks Ago Telling of Regime of Constitutionalists but Has Heard Nothing Since.

Great self control is being shown by D. H. Meymarian, proprietor of a rug store at 143 Golden Hill street, who is fearful of the news that will come to him concerning the welfare of his mother, three brothers and four sisters who lived, when he heard from them last, in the heart of Adana, Turkey, where several thousand Christians, like his people, were massacred and their homes burned.

It will cost him 48 cents a word to cable and he does not know where to direct the cablegram now that the town is burned. If he cabled the authorities his message would probably be one of thousands which Turkish officials would have no time to bother with during their present turmoil.

Mr. Meymarian, who is a graduate of the American college at Constantinople where he resided for four years, states that there were 17 Mohammedans to every Christian in Adana and his only hope for the safety of his brothers is that the regime of the Young Turks allowed the Christians to carry arms. He says he knows that if his brothers were killed that they were armed and died like men instead of being cut down as unarmed Armenians were in bygone days.

One brother is a lawyer, another a retail merchant and the other a dealer in cereals. In a letter from his youngest brother, dated three weeks ago and received last Thursday, the writer states that the constitution of the Young Turks allows them free press, free speech and free travel which they have never had before; but as for the right to use the ballot, he

VACANT LOT CULTIVATION TO BEGIN ON SATURDAY

Vacant lot cultivation is to commence in good earnest Saturday on the Brooklawn plots and everyone interested is invited to go out and watch the planting. The ground has been prepared and provision for seeds made for a ten per cent. discount. The State street plantation has been already given out to old land holders, but on the Brooklawn land there is someone in charge to lease the garden plots and to give advice concerning planting them.

The interest manifested last year in this kind of farming and the practical results gained has encouraged the Vacant Lot committee to continue the work this year. The movement is designed particularly to meet the need of small wage earners with large families. Vegetables of many sorts can be successfully raised, and not only for a food supply, but radishes, peas, beans, cucumbers, tomatoes are provided for the table, but turnips, cabbages and potatoes can be raised in quantities sufficient for winter use.

JOURNEYMEN PLUMBERS TO CONVEY HERE

The members of the local Plumbers' Union are preparing for the meeting of the State organization at the Stratfield on Wednesday, May 12. Mayor Lee has accepted an invitation to open the meeting and welcome the visiting delegates to the city.

We often wonder how any person can be persuaded into taking anything but Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung trouble. Do not be fooled into accepting "own make" or other substitutes. The genuine contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. F. B. Brill, local agent.

FAIRFIELD

New Library Books—Damages Recovered—A New Barber—Boys With Bad Manners—Egging a Runner.

The following new books have recently been added to the Pequot library: Principles of Vegetable Gardening, by L. H. Bailey; Practical Irrigation, by A. J. Bowie; Bush-fruits, by F. W. Card; Beach Patrol, by W. Drysdale; Talking Woman, by Mrs. M. I. Fish; Builders of United Italy, by R. S. Holland; Boys' Book of Locomotives, by J. R. Howden; India—Its Life and Thought, by J. P. Jones; Siberian Exiles, by T. W. Knox; Septimus, by W. J. Locke; Primary Elections, by C. E. Merriman; Old Times on the Upper Mississippi, by G. B. Merrick; Yale Verses, by Moses and Thurston; With Flash Light and Rifle, by C. G. Schilling; The Carolinians, by A. L. Sean, and the Wandering Jew, by M. J. Sue.

Mrs. George Jennings has recovered $500 damages against the trolley company as the result of an accident some two years ago, when she was thrown from her carriage and received severe spinal injuries.

Ray Bennett has gone to California where it is said he has secured a good paying position.

Mr. F. J. Mills has been suffering from an attack of rheumatism. On the 15th of May Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bishon, who are back from a recent honeymoon trip to Bermuda, will give a reception to their friends at the old Banks residence.

Mr. Stephen Jennings does not improve as fast as his friends could wish. His right arm is entirely useless and he is able to but slightly move the toes of his right foot. He is quite an old man, not far from 50, and it is feared his recovery is doubtful.

It is said there are 700 dogs in town. From the number seen on the streets it looks as if there are 1,000.

In the hallway of the Pequot library there is now a fine display of pictures reproductions of the old masters.

But for the unexpected snow storm which struck the town yesterday afternoon the Oneida club boys proposed to engage in a good deal of practice for the baseball game which they are scheduled to play with the young men of the Hargrove school.

Mr. Och, who has so long occupied a stand in the Kinsella block as a barber, packed up all his belongings yesterday and moved to Wilton, Conn. There is a rumor in town that the vacant shop will be taken by an Italian who will also run a barber shop.

Mr. Justice Wakeman was busy yesterday drafting a constitution for the new proposed athletic club which is intended to be founded upon broad and simple lines, in the hope that in time it will develop into a town institution with a club house of its own where both boys and girls can find opportunities for recreation as well as social intercourse.

What was known as the Wakeman estate, purchased by the "Boston Realty Company," has been cut up into lots and will be sold on very easy terms. The land is on the Mill Plain road, not far from the estate of Mr. Frederick Sturges. It is announced that if a man has $200 to invest the company will build him a $2,000 house and allow the rent to go towards paying the principal.

Miss Bourne, of the Staples High school, of Westport, brought her class to the library in this town yesterday; to spend an afternoon in the study of Venice. There are some very beautiful and costly books on that city which cannot be found in many other libraries.

Complaint is made that some of the young boys at the center of the town are altogether too fresh, and sometimes go so far as to say insulting things to ladies. As the boys are presumed to go to school they should have better manners.

A good deal was said yesterday about a foot race indulged in by Walter Gould, who ran around the central square of the town. It is reported that when he passed along Broad street some of the rougher element threw a good many eggs at the fellow, for some reason unknown, and fended around the yards of private houses were smeared with their contents. Mr. Gould is reported to be a New York boy, who has been in training for some time under the impression that he could become a Marathon runner.

It was a poor evening for a concert but the talent engaged drew a very fair audience last night at Pequot hall. Besides the choir of the church those who took part were: George Avis of the Center church, New Haven; Fred Leach, violinist, and Miss Cooper, soprano.

The Memorial library has just put upon its shelves a series of 12 volumes called the Library of Home Economics. It is described as a complete home study course on the new profession of home making, and the art of right living. There are 3,000 pages and 1,000 illustrations.

ORDINANCE COMMITTEE TO CLEAN SLATE

The ordinance committee of the Common Council expects to hold a meeting in the near future for the purpose of clearing up the matters before them. There is the ordinance proposed by the board of health in which they desire to control the sale of milk and meat in this city. The members of the committee are inclined to believe it is drafted so closely that it might be regarded as being in restraint of trade, therefore it will be greatly changed before it goes before the aldermen for adoption.

The other matters concern the raising of the salary of the Superintendent of Bridges from $1,000 to $1,500 per annum and creating the office of police electrician with rank of sergeant.
